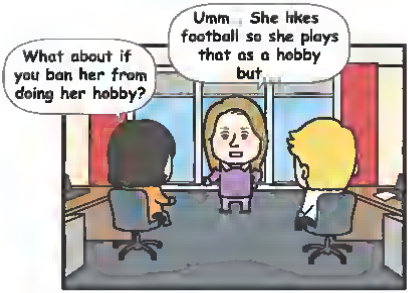
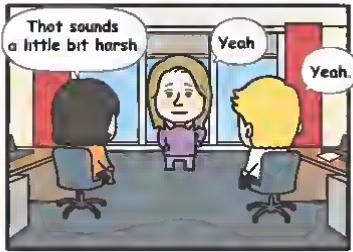
Purnishment

One morning

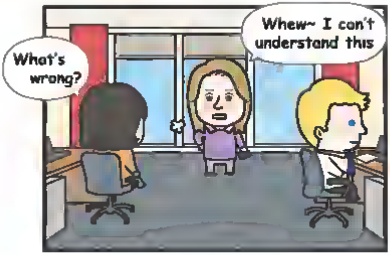
So they talked about what kind af punishment her doughter should receive



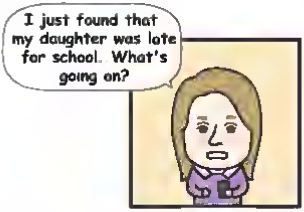
What about if you ban her from doing her hobby?
Umm... She likes football so she plays that as a hobby but



That sounds a little bit harsh
Yeah
Yeah.



Mev's colleague Deb was upset



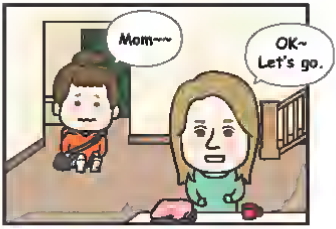
Because she got a message from her daughter's school that her daughter got to school late

After they shared a few ideas,...

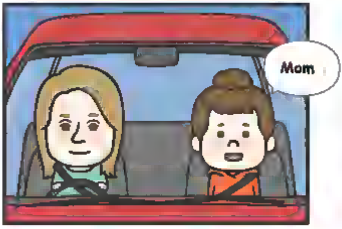
Mev suggested an idea.

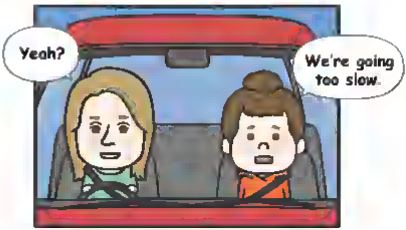
That evening

As planned, Deb and her daughter were getting ready to go to football

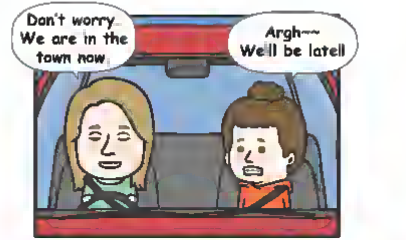


Finally they left home.





Yeah?
We're going too slow.



Don't worry. We are in the town now.
Argh~~ We'll be late!!

The punishment that Mev suggested was...

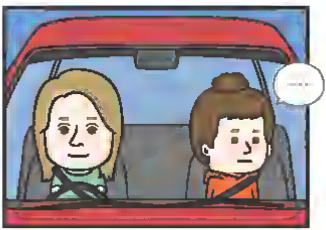
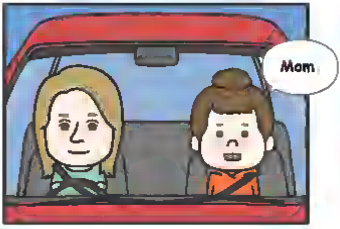
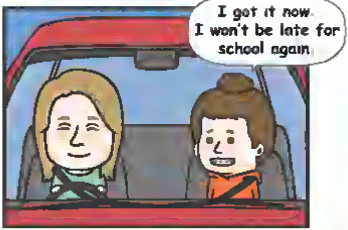
...to be late for football just as she was late for her school.





Mom.



I got it now.
I won't be late for school again.

The next day
She figured out why I was doing that.

So, it was a happy ending.
